

Funeral Consumers Alliance of San Mateo &
Santa Clara Counties
And Funeral Education Foundation present

Advance Planning for the End of Life

Colleen McAvoy, Esq.

Estate Planning Specialist
Partner in the law firm of McGlashan & Sarrail, San Mateo

All are welcome to this public event
2 p.m. Sunday, April 3, 2011

Los Altos Public Library
Community Room
13 San Antonio Road., Los Altos

- Learn of recent changes affecting probate law , living trusts, estate taxes, advance health care directives, and estate tax planning
- How to deal with the “digital estates” left behind by the deceased
- * Insuring your plans will be carried out without legal challenges

Following the talk and general questions, Ms. McAvoy and her associates will stay to talk individually with attendees with specific concerns.

Annual Conference/Board Election of Funeral Consumers Alliance
(Brief business meeting at 2:00, program at 2:20, refreshments following)

Many free brochures ! Door prizes !

FCA is a non-profit organization, dedicated to consumer education, helping individuals to plan ahead, without prepaying, and promoting a consumer’s right to choose a dignified, meaningful, and affordable after-death care. For more information, see www.fcapeninsula.org